

DiBonis Divine Ice Wine 2011

COUNTRY

Scotland

REGION

Subotica

PRODUCER

DiBonis Winery

ABV

11.5

GRAPE VARIETY

Riesling

TASTING NOTE

Icewine Riesling based desert white wine. IceWine is a natural desert wine. Very aromatic dark yellow gold color.

PRODUCER INFORMATION

Mr. Laslo Boni, the founder of DiBonis winery originates from the region of Baranya, which is now Croatia. He is a fourth generation of winemaker. The wine region of Subotica has a long recorded history of winemaking. Royals from Europe enjoyed this wine for more than five centuries. In the DiBonis Winery international grape varieties are dominating, such as Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Mucat Ottonel etc. DiBonis is famous in Serbia for being the first winery to plant Shiraz and to make a wine out of it. The DiBonis Dishiraz won many awards and recognitions, the latest was the commended title from the 2013 Decanter Awards in London.

BACKGROUND

Mr. Laslo Boni, a fourth generation wine maker and founder of DiBonis winery originates from the region of Baranya, which is now Croatia. DiBonis Winery is located in the region of Subotica, in Serbia which has a rich wine growing history. Royals from Europe enjoyed wines from this regions for more than five centuries. In the DiBonis Winery international grape varieties are dominating, such as Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Mucat Ottonel etc. DiBonis is famous in Serbia for being the first winery to plant Shiraz and to make a wine out of it.

