PRODUCER INFORMATION

This Domaine is owned by Patricia and Bruno Denis and they produce incredible wines from their tiny farm with help from family members. Patricia is the oenologist and Bruno the winegrower. This is a modest family-run operation, but these two have worked hard over the years to develop the quality and character of their wines, drawing on their experience further afield in the industry. Their intentions are simple: to make elegant wines that will bring pleasure to lovers both of wine and of life.

The vineyards of the Domaine Renaudie lie in the South of the Touraine Appellation on the tuffeau soils of the terroir de Chenonceaux in the Coteaux du Cher. They have 25 hectares of vines that average 40 years old.
